| 11:00 am–12:30 pm EDT  | Keynote Address: Growing Physician Leaders...An UpdateMark Hertling, DBA, Lieutenant General, US Army (retired); Advisor, AdventHealth Leadership Institute; and Senior Military Analyst, CNN  |
|  | As healthcare increases in complexity, healthcare organizations are applying resources to design and execute leader development programs. This presentation will show examples of these programs and how an interprofessional approach to leader development is the most effective.  |
| 2:00 pm–3:00 pm EDT  | Achieving Value Through Awareness, Appropriateness and AffordabilityChristopher Moriates, MD, Executive Director, Costs of Care; Assistant Dean for Healthcare Value and Associate Chair for Quality, Safety &amp; Value, Dell Medical School at the University of Texas   |
|  | This session will describe our shared motivation for providing value-based health care for our patients. It is not related to readmissions penalties. And it is not primarily the realm of financial experts. We will discuss the progression from awareness (transparency and recognizing the physical and financial harms of overuse) to appropriateness (Choosing Wisely and cutting out clinical waste) to affordability for patients. Dr. Moriates will also provide examples about how physicians, administrators, data scientists and others can all work together to figure out how to provide the best care at lowest cost.                           |
| Friday, March 27thWebinarAll Times are Eastern Daylight Time   |  |
| 10:00 am–11:00 am EDT  | Improvisation: Using Art and Science to Transform TeamsMike Eppehimer, MHSA, FACHE, President, ChristianaCare Medical Group  |
|  | This fun, thought-provoking and interactive session will introduce the audience to the principles of improvisation and demonstrate how those principles can create better leaders and teams. We will explore the uses of improvisational techniques in healthcare environments and demonstrate how the artistic concepts of improv help to compliment, and enhance, our traditional approaches to improvement science. The audience will take away broader concepts and specific techniques that will help them to improve their personal leadership approach and the performance of their teams.   |
| 12:00 pm–1:00 pm EDT   | Value of the Patient’s VoiceKevin Weiss, MD, Chief Sponsoring Institution and Clinical Learning Environment Officer, Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME)  |
|  | This presentation will review the new focus on the patient’s role in establishing an optimal of the Clinical Learning Environment. As part of this presentation, the new CLER Pathways to excellence focus on teaming and the role of patient in the clinical team will be discussed. Additionally, the participants will be introduced to the new CLER’s sub-protocol focusing on the patient perspective of their clinical learning environment. The participants will be asked to engage in a discussion on the various ways to enhancing patient engagement in their clinical learning environment increases the quality and value of their clinical care. |
