Macro Environment Approach: Supporting the Clinical Learning Environment and Seeking Input from Others

Note: All Times Eastern Daylight Time

10:00 am– 10:15 am	Welcome and Opening Remarks NI X Co-Chairs Theresa Azevedo Rouso, MPA, Regional Senior Director and Designated Institutional Official, Kaiser Permanente Northern California and Victor O. Kolade, MD Core Faculty, Internal Medicine Residency, The Guthrie Clinic; Professor of Medicine & Regional Clerkship Director for Internal Medicine
10:15 am– 11:15 am	Interactive Exercise- Unintended Consequences Roundtable Joy Walton, MD, MPH, Associate Program Director, Internal Medicine Residency and Medical Director Community Care, OhioHealth Doctors Hospital Dr. Walton will set the stage for this roundtable by exploring an unintended consequence her team encountered and the lessons that emerged from the experience. Participants will break into groups, sharing their own examples using a PDSA (Plan, Do, Study, Act) format. The full group will reconvene for a debrief focused on key learnings and how they can be applied to future projects. This exercise will help teams translate examples of unintended consequences into clearer methodology limitations and actionable lessons learned.
11:15 am– 11:30 am	BREAK
11:30 am – 11:35am	Breakout Room Assignments Victor O. Kolade, MD Core Faculty, Internal Medicine Residency, The Guthrie Clinic; Professor of Medicine & Regional Clerkship Director for Internal Medicine
11:35am – 1:45 pm	Cohort Breakouts -Storyboard Presentations This is a key opportunity for teams to share both progress and challenges shaping their projects. Through storyboard presentations, teams will exchange feedback, learn from one another's experiences, and benefit from the perspective of National Advisory Council members.
1:45 pm– 2:00 pm	Reflection Word Cloud As a final reflection, attendees will be invited to share one word that reflects their meeting experience. These responses will be transformed into a Reflection Word Cloud, offering a visual snapshot of collective takeaways and shared with all attendees after the meeting.
2:00 pm– 2:15 pm	Meeting Three Closing Remarks NI X Co-Chairs Theresa Azevedo Rouso, MPA, Regional Senior Director and Designated Institutional Official, Kaiser Permanente Northern California and Victor O. Kolade, MD Core Faculty, Internal Medicine Residency, The Guthrie Clinic; Professor of Medicine & Regional Clerkship Director for Internal Medicine
