8:45-10:00	CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS (Three Offered; Choose One)
Gardenia 1	Turbulent Waters: Partners in Navigating Changing Immigration Policies: Cleveland Clinic Janice Bianco, Director, Visa &amp; Immigration Services
	Immigration policies and procedures are changing rapidly. To maintain your resilience and provide the best possible service to your programs and international trainees it is important to identify partners who can advise, coach and support you and your trainees. This session will help you identify the internal/external partners, advisors, coaches and mentors you need to sustain quality service to all.
Gardenia 2	Leading Through Disruption: Stories that Shape Resilient Leaders and Systems – JPS Health Network Diana Singer, PhD, RN, CCRN, CNE, C-TAGME, Executive Director, Academic Affairs Tricia Elliott, MD, FAAFP, Sr. Vice President, Academic &amp; Research Affairs Caroline Diez, EdD, Director, Graduate Medical Education
	Feeling isolated in your role as a medical education leader? Struggling with HR dilemmas, legal concerns, or high-stakes remediation? You are not alone. This session brings together over 45 years of combined leadership experience to explore shared challenges and practical strategies for resilience, empathy, and teamwork in complex situations. Through interactive case studies, breakout discussions, and collaborative reflection, participants will strengthen leadership skills, build peer connections, and leave with resources to continue navigating disruption with confidence, compassion, and courage.
Camellia	Application of Working Genius to Team-Building: An Innovative Approach to Medical Education – Guthrie Clinic Victor Kolade, MD, FACP, Internal Medicine Clerkship Director, Guthrie Clinic, and Professor of Medicine &amp; Regional Clerkship Director for Internal Medicine, Geisinger Commonwealth SOM Oluwagbemiga Oyeleye, MBBS, Resident Physician, Internal Medicine
	An interactive session discussing 6 types of Working Genius as identified by Patrick Lencioni in The 6 Types of Working Genius: A Better Way to Understand Your Gifts, Your Frustrations and Your Team (2,3) . The didactic portion is illustrated using examples from undergraduate as well as graduate medical education. It is anticipated that participants would understand not only the basic concepts of Working Genius but also its applications to teaming for scholarly activity.
10:00-10:30 Poinsettia 3	Break; Exhibits Open
10:30-11:45 Poinsettia 1 & 2	Plenary 3: National Initiative X Top Storyboards Slam and Boxed Lunch Select National Initiative X Teams and National Advisory Council Members (NAC) Instead of our traditional Poster Slam, residents and junior faculty from National Initiative X teams will share innovative approaches taken in the following areas: AI, Professionalism, Professional Identity Formation, and others that support our Annual Meeting theme. The top storyboards – one from each of the four cohorts – will be selected on-site by National Advisory Council (NAC) members. The four presenters will share their storyboards in rapid, ten-minute

	presentations, and will be awarded a free meeting registration to NI X Meeting Four. You will definitely want to stay until the end of the meeting to see who is chosen....might it be someone from your home institution? Jodi Langsfeld, EdD, Chief Operating Officer, The Arnold P.
